

Invitation to the 4th EXPATRIATE LOUNGE 2004"It's not easy being an expat"*Monday, 08/Nov/04 - 19:00 h - Chamber of Commerce - Room "Elbe (101)"
(Adolphsplatz 1, 20457 Hamburg - behind the city hall)

Everybody who has lived abroad knows how difficult the little things can suddenly be: the foreign bureaucracy, banks or the tax authorities, not to mention the new culture, new colleagues and the new language.

Therefore we would like to assist you in solving everyday problems and at the same time to take an entertaining look on expat living in the past and today.

In the beautiful setting of the historic chamber of commerce our speakers will have valuable advice for you and will also answer all questions. Afterwards we will have a get-together with an excellent buffet and drinks in the antique restaurant "Ratsweinkeller" in the catacombs under the town hall with time to chat and socialize.

We are looking forward to see all members (free admittance) and guests (10 €) there! Please register until 27/October/2004 via email to expat@hk24.de or by fax to 040 / 361 38 494.

Expat Lounge Program:19:00"Taxation of expatriates in Germany"

Dr. Klaus Bracht, Partner Tax &amp; Frank Retzlaff, Senior Manager Human Capital, Ernst &amp; Young Hamburg

19:45"Asia in those days"

Thomas Brandt

Vice Chairman of the German-Malaysian Chamber of Commerce and Industry; author of "Asia in those days" and "Asia Comic"

20:30"Going Global: How to deal with Germans"

Brigitte Hild

Founder &amp; CEO of Going Global GmbH

20:45Get-together with buffet and drinks in the restaurant "Ratsweinkeller"

(Grosse Johannisstraße 2; close to the city hall)

We thank our sponsors:

Quality In Everything We Do

