

MAR
10

MHHC March Heritage Talk KL

Event for Malaysian Heritage and History Club ·
Event · by Dennis Ong

Dennis Ong invited you

✓
Going

?
Maybe

✗
Can't Go

⋮
More

Saturday, March 10 at 3 PM - 4 PM
Next Week · 23-33° Thunderstorms

Malaysia Trust)

No.2 Jalan Stonor, 50450 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

ABOUT THE TALK

"China in Those Days" will be presented through a wide collection of historical images, and of historical postcards that are over a century old. Each of this image is worth a thousand words, many of which are rare and not to be found elsewhere. The talk will cover an overview of 5000 years of Chinese history, and some of China's communication history. In addition, the overseas Chinese phenomena – in various parts of the world – South East Asia, San Francisco, Los Angeles, New York etc., will also be highlighted.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Thomas Brandt is author of bestseller "China in Those Days", a book filled with century-old postcards, and historical findings on the history China and overseas Chinese. This book is exclusive and is only for sale in special occasions. He has been in South East Asia for 22 years and has deep interest in the history of the Asia as a whole. Brandt has an amazing postcard collection that spans over 55,000 images that date back as early as the 1900s. Brandt is also author of bestseller "Asia in Those Days", a book about the early sea journeys from Europe to